

JOB DESCRIPTION

Special Events Coordinator

Reports To: Development/Communications Manager

FLSA Status: 30 hrs week/Non-Exempt

POSITION SUMMARY

Seeking an energetic Special Events Coordinator to help plan and execute mission based fundraising and community events to support the programs of FamilyWorks. In close coordination with the Development/Communications Manager, the Event Planner will coordinate the annual Sunday Supper event and additional events which offer guests unique and meaningful experiences, and build connections in the community. The Special Events Coordinator will be guided by the Principles of Family Support and will promote these principles in the community. The Coordinator will learn and enhance skills that promote anti-racism and cultural competency. Looking for an enthusiastic professional who is organized and capable of building strong and positive relationships within the agency and in the community.
